Clarifications:

1. Regarding Pricing for Lab Packs

How should the pricing be calculated for 1/4 lab pack, 1/2 lab pack, and full lab pack based on the estimated quantities provided in kilograms on the Excel sheet.

Response:

The estimated quantity is an approximate to assist vendors to submit best pricing for the three (3) separate units of measure. This quantity is subject to change over the term of the contract. It is at the vendor's discretion to formulate the price per lab pack based appropriate variables such as weight, container size, industry standard and complete the Price Form for RFSO 4224.

Schedule A – Revised Price Form is available for download requesting the Lab Pack Price only.
